The New Hampshire Public Health Association (NHPHA) announced that it has welcomed Marilee Nihan, former Deputy Commissioner for the Department of Health and Human Services and resident of Bow, NH, to its 2021-2022 Board of Directors.

Prior to retiring, Ms. Nihan worked for the State of New Hampshire for 22 years in health administration and senior financial management positions for the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Corrections. At the time of her retirement from the state, she served as Deputy Commissioner for the Department of Health and Human Services. Ms. Nihan now works as a consultant in the health policy arena and serves as a board member for the state's Personnel Appeals Board. Prior to working in NH state government, she worked at a substance use treatment hospital performing quality management and administrative functions.

Ms. Nihan will serve on the NHPHA board through 2022.

About NHPHA
